Getting there

Take the bus till the bus stop Jerzens Dorf (village centre). For the arrival by car you can use the car park Church free of charge.

Description

Below the “Jerzens Kirche” car park, the hiking trail leads in a generous arc around the church and after approx. 600 meters you have the opportunity to go back past the church to the starting point. The supervised hiking trail leads over a bridge onto a dirt road, which after about another 600 meters joins the state road. Follow this state road back into the village center and after about 300 meters you will reach the “Jerzens Kirche” car park.
